What to do now?

The Lord's Prayer Retreat

1. Discussion questions for the ride home and/or at home:

- A. What was the most important thing you learned this weekend?
- B. Why was that really important to you?
- C. What was the part you enjoyed the most? Why did you enjoy that?
- D. Describe the prayer stations and what happened at each? What one did you enjoy the most and why?
- E. Did your faith grow this weekend? Why or why not?
- F. Tell me something you didn't know that you learned this weekend.

2. Each student will write a summary report, in paragraph form, on what they learned this weekend. Their report should answer the following questions:

- A. What is prayer and why is it an important part of your life?
- B. Why is it important that we call God "Daddy"? What does that say about our relationship with him?
- C. What is God's will and how is it accomplished in this world? What role do you play in this?
- D. How is God's name hallowed in your life?
- E. What's the difference between temptation and sin? How can we resist the devil and the temptations of this world?

F. Other learning and applications from the weekend.

Each report will need to be typed, single spaced, 14 font, one page long. It will need to be turned in to TK by the next Sunday after the retreat. Make sure your name, "Lord's Prayer report" and date are on the top of the page.
