

Shop GDLC for great items

We have lots of fun items that are available now as well as in the future.

GDLC Tumblers: Through the month of May, GDLC tumblers will be available for a suggested donation of $5. These donations will help fund the tumblers for visitors starting in June.

Online Store: We will have an online store where GDLC apparel and gear can be purchased. There will be lots of selections and sizes for all. When the store opens (projected date - May 18), we will send an e-mail with a live link. Please note that this store will only be open for a short time, so purchase your items as soon as you receive the link.

If this store is met with enthusiasm, we will open another one in the fall that will highlight winter wear.

Sermon "He Is Our Leader-Defender-Protector"

Phone? Texts? E-mails? Social media? Meetings? Appointments? Do you hear the voices in our world calling for your attention? Have we lost our ability to hear the voice of our Shepherd? He is our caretaker, provider, sustainer, defender, protector and friend. He calls us by name, leads us to still waters and restores our souls. This week's "I AM" statement, "I am the Good Shepherd," begs the question "Do you hear Him?" Or have the sounds of the world deafened us to His still small voice? Is Jesus leading, guiding, defending and protecting us or are we going this all alone? This week He challenges us to lay aside the distractions of this world in pursuit of the One who provides true peace, sustainment and fulfillment, because He is our Leader-Defender-Protector.

Happy Mother's Day

Today is the day set aside to show appreciation for the immense job of raising a child. We are so thankful for your lives today and everyday.

Book Recommendation

May's book of the month is from Jo Lynn Yeutsy, Director of Tiny Treasures Lutheran Preschool.

Bryan Stevenson, author of an inspirational book called "Just Mercy," is doing God's work fighting for the poor, the oppressed, the voiceless, the vulnerable, the outcast, and those with no hope. Mr. Stevenson is a lawyer and founder of the Equal Justice Initiative, a legal practice dedicated to defending those most desperate and in need. Stevenson first began helping death row prisoners, mostly black, who had had no legal defense of any kind. He discovered there were thousands who were completely innocent. This led him to start the Equal Justice Initiative (EJI) which is still going strong to this day. In his book, Stevenson states, "The opposite of poverty is not wealth; the opposite of poverty is justice." Mental illness, children tried as adults, poverty and race play a large part in many of the cases explored in this book. "Just Mercy" is an inspiring argument for compassion in the pursuit of true justice. Stevenson received the Andrew Carnegie Medal for Excellence in Nonfiction for his book.

Summary from Amazon: A Hebrew girl first tasted it when she escaped death nearly seventy years ago as the Babylonians ransacked Jerusalem and took their finest as captives. Now, as Daniel's wife and a septuagenarian matriarch, Belili thinks she's safe and she can live out her days in Babylon without fear--until the night Daniel is escorted to Belshazzar's palace to interpret mysterious handwriting on a wall. What will the reign of Darius mean for Daniel, a man who prays to Yahweh alone?
